The Course

Lakes of the Four Seasons golf course is a challenging par 72 layout with long par 3s averaging 180 yards, water on holes No. 7 and 16, and flowing par 5s. Sand traps guard several greens.

The course offers some interesting shot selection. Doglegs complicate several holes giving the aggressive player a challenge for a birdie opportunity. Private residences abut the tree lined fairways throughout the course.

No. 16 is the signature hole and requires a straight shot across a lake to the top of the hill. Mature oaks flank the narrow fairway and the two-tiered green presents a difficult up and down. Watered tees and fairways make for a enjoyable round even in the heat of summer.

Junior Golf Program

Four Seasons Junior Golf Program is one of the best in the area. Many of our junior golfers have gone on to compete in high school and college golf, or chosen careers in the golf field. Specialized teaching, with emphasis on skills, golf etiquette and participation in tournaments, are all part of this unique program.

Tournaments and Events

The Men's and Women's Golf Association host numerous events throughout the season. Tournaments are designed to accommodate all skill levels. Men's, women's and couples' play are all part of the golf experience at Lakes of the Four Seasons.

Lakes of the Four Seasons Golf and Country Club, an 18 hole course designed by James R. Thompson, offers a challenging and fun layout. Three sets of tees guarantee an enjoyable experience for all skill levels. Maintained by a USGA Course Superintendent and enhanced by a complete irrigation system, the course is pristine all summer long. The 6400 yard par 72 course is built amid the private gated community and provides an interesting combination of residential homes and golf course. A driving range, practice green and short game practice area add to the complex. The onsite PGA professional is available for lessons. A fully stocked pro shop and grill are available to shop and or relax before or after a round.
